Shaun the Sheep has flocked to Paradise Country!

Shaun the Sheep has embarked on an Australian adventure and have arrived at Paradise Country to spread their outrageous behaviour, sheepish shenanigans and panic in the pasture.

Shaun the Sheep at Paradise Country includes an all new interactive water play zone, playground, stage show, tractor ride and interactive movie making cinema.

Paradise Country General Manager, Shane Phillips said Shaun the Sheep is a wonderful fit for the park with both parties sharing an affinity for the farm lifestyle.

“Shaun the Sheep is such an iconic and well-known character with families and we are excited to welcome him and his flock to Paradise Country and look forward to our guests enjoying these amazing new attractions,” he said.

“A highlight of this new attraction is the live Shearing Shed Stage Show where Shaun and his flock embark on an exciting adventure the whole family can enjoy while meeting new Australian friends, Kora the Koala and Konal the cockatoo.

“The attraction is a full farm adventure with the Shaun the Sheep Tractor ride taking guests on a scenic tour of the park and encompassing the various Shaun the Sheep attractions and activities on offer including the The Pig’s Playground, interactive movie making cinema and more.”

Ngaio Harding-Hill, Senior Manager Attractions & Live Experiences at Aardman commented:

“As Australia’s number one Farm Based Attraction, Paradise Country is the perfect home for Shaun the Sheep’s next attraction adventure. The new experience captures all the fun and frolics of the show in a real life adventure fans will adore.”

This is the first in a number of new attractions at Village Roadshow Theme Parks this December with the amazing new Aquaman Exhibition and Scooby-Doo Spooky Coaster: Next Generation opening at Movie World along with the Sea World Sky Flyer.
