China's first International water theme park in Haikou, Wet'n'Wild Haikou, is Now Open!

Village Roadshow Theme Parks (VRTP), Guangxi Investment Group and Mission Hills Group are excited to announce Hainan's new water park, Wet'n'Wild Haikou is now open.

Located in Mission Hills Centreville Haikou, the 240,000 square-metre retail, dining and entertainment precinct, Wet'n'Wild Haikou is the city's first international water park and offers a world class line-up of more than 30 iconic slides, pools and attractions and is surrounded by luxury hotels such as The Ritz-Carlton Haikou and The Renaissance Haikou Hotel.

Wet'n'Wild Haikou boasts exciting, heart racing and jaw dropping slides for all ages, plus a host of family-friendly attractions including the idyllic Wild Water Bay, a huge Wave Pool with the perfect waves and a huge digital screen for added and all day entertainment.

Wet'n'Wild Haikou General Manager, Lee Carter said he is excited for guests to be able to experience the exhilarating and fun environment now on offer. "Wet'n'Wild Haikou will provide Hainan holiday makers and locals with a truly international water park experience that will transport them into a never-before-seen world of wild water adventures," he said.

"The park stretches over 50,000 sq metres of land and offers a range of iconic slides and attractions for the whole family including the Vortex, the Half-Pipe, Water Rockets, 360 Rush, Super 8 Aqua Racer, Wet'n'Wild junior and many more.

"Our mission is to be a world leader in safety and provide world-class water slides, facilities, food and service to generate repeat visitation and enjoyment for all visiting guests. VRTP leads the way globally, operating under the highest standards of safety and water quality and we bring this knowledge and expertise to Wet'n'Wild Haikou.

"In addition to the world-class water slides, Wet'n'Wild Haikou also delicious restaurants and food options along with the coolest event spaces for public or corporates wanting to do team buildings or private functions."

Wet'n'Wild Haikou is operated by Village Roadshow Theme Parks, part of Village Roadshow Limited, internationally recognised as one of the largest and most diverse entertainment companies in the world with investment portfolios in many businesses. A leading water park and theme park operator, the company is Australia's largest theme park operator with Sea World, Warner Bros. Movie World, Wet 'n' Wild Gold Coast, Village Roadshow Studios, Sea World Resort & Water Park and Wet'n'Wild Las Vegas in the United States.
