

MEDIA ALERT

FOR Monday 5th October

Sea World's Polar Bear Henry Takes Flight of a Lifetime

Sea World Polar Bear 'Henry' is set to embark on the first leg of his journey to the Cochrane Polar Habitat in Canada with the assistance of the Royal Australian Air Force who will fly Henry from the Gold Coast to Sydney in a C-130J Hercules aircraft on Tuesday morning.

Air Force Hercules pilot and air crew along with the Federal Member for Fadden, Hon Stuart Robert MP will visit Sea World and meet Henry before their flight.

Media are invited to film and photograph the RAAF team meeting Henry

DETAILS

Date: Monday 5th October

Time: 10.15am arrival

Place: Sea World Reception (meet Mitchell Olivey)

Opportunities: Media are invited to film and photograph the RAAF team meeting Henry

Interviews: Sea World Director of Marine Science, Trevor Long
Hercules Pilot Flight Lieutenant Conan Brett
Federal Member for Fadden, Hon Stuart Robert MP

NOTE – This will be the last media opportunity to see Henry before he leave for Canada.

Media Contact:

Mitchell Olivey
Communications Coordinator
P 0403 279 973
E mitchell_olivey@vrtp.com.au